

Editorial Intelligence Forthcoming Events: Speakers and Dates Updated: 7 June 2017

Editorial Intelligence will run over fifty events in 2017 eiNetwork Club monthly supper salons are one of our most popular membership features. Chaired by eiAmbassadors it is a chance for the members to be the speakers and share their thoughts and opinions over delicious food and drink. Membership of the club - for an individual or an organisation to share with others - allows members to attend up to ten events a year across the different brands we curate under:

Networking Nations, our post-Brexit forum with a focus on policy and business in London and innovation and digital issues in Europe; Early Risers, our breakfast ideas gatherings with an emphasis on bringing together our rising stars under 40 into a room with members more established in their careers; Comment Conference and Awards, which celebrate the best of comment, opinion and journalism in the UK; and Names Not Numbers, our flagship symposium which culminates in a two-day 'experiential residential' in Oxford each September.

Our partners host our events with us and provide some member benefits as well as an unrivalled series of spaces in which people and ideas we curate can be connected in style, stimulation and comfort: Corinthia London, Wellcome Trust, British Library, Waddesdon Manor, The Office Group, LIBRARY. We have book and publication partnerships with Harvard Business Review and Bloomsbury, adding an interesting read into the hands of our members when we see them.

HOW TO ATTEND

If you are a member of the eiNetwork Club, you know what to do: Let laura@editorialintelligence.com know which events you want to reserve your place at. We will also send reminders in your regular club newsletter: Venues and timings advised on booking.

And if you are not (yet) a member of the eiNetwork club and would like to find out how to join, and to attend a trial Early Risers breakfast, please contact karen@editorialintelligence.com to find out more. Or you can download the annual membership form here:

http://editorialintelligence.com/uploads/index_88_4118847376.pdf

Next pages: Dates and speakers

JUNE

Monday 12th: SUPPER: eiNetwork Club Supper

Thursday 15th: BREAKFAST: Networking Nations

Speakers: Tina Fordham, Chief Global Analyst, Citi, and member UN High-Level Panel on Women's Economic Empowerment + Sir Win Bischoff, Chairman, The Financial Reporting Council and Chairman, JP Morgan We are thrilled to have two of the most senior and prominent figures in global banking join us for an exploration of what is happening as we approach the year mark of Brexit, and the six month mark of President Trump.

Wednesday 21st: BREAKFAST: Early Risers Special

The Working Life report

The publication of a report published by The Office Group in association with Editorial Intelligence on modern working practices, co-working and what happier more productive means today.

Speakers: Julia Hobsbawm, founder of ei and author of The Fully Connected and James Ashton, former City Editor of The London Evening Standard and author of the Working Life report

JULY

Thursday 6th: BREAKFAST: Networking Nations

Co-Hosted and co-curated with Ellwood Atfield who are one of the biggest players in the executive search area across UK and Brussels in Communications and Advocacy. Join guests from the worlds of policy, business, communications, strategy.

Monday 10th: DRINKS: eiNetwork Club Summer Drinks

Come and wind down for the summer (our events pause over August) for a cocktails with some new and old ei friends. First of 3 nights hosted at the Corinthia Hotel.

Tuesday 11th: DRINKS: eiNetwork Club Summer Drinks

Wednesday 12th: DRINKS: eiNetwork Club Summer Drinks

SEPTEMBER

Tuesday 5th: ALL DAY: Networking Nations Berlin

"The Human and the Machine"

Berlin's one-day programme is on 'The Human and the Machine' and will take places partly at the Vodafone Institute for Society & Communications building in central Berlin, and partly nearby in another location. The focus is all on innovation, digital and what is being called the Gigabit economy, as part of Networking Nations, our post-Brexit forum (www.networkingnations.eu).

Speakers confirmed include the digital guru Andrew Keen, author of The Internet is Not the Answer and the new book How to Fix The Future why is flying over from California to participate, and people like Ije Nwokorie, global CEO of Design Firm Wolff Olins, as well as a swathe of key European figures addressing topics from bioprinting of body parts, to bitcoin; from AI and robotics to privacy and internet trolling.

Wednesday 13th: SUPPER: Midweek Club Supper

Thursday 14th: BREAKFAST: Networking Nations
Speakers: Catherine McGuinness, Deputy Policy Chief, City of London Corporation
+ TBC

Sunday/Monday
24/25th

Names Not Numbers: NNN
"The Near Distance"

See www.namesnotnumbers.com for background and eiDigests for updates.

For many NNN Autumn 'Experiential Residential' is the jewel in the crown of ei's approach to knowledge networking and it is for people who want a rather special experience. Ticket packages now available.

OCTOBER

Wednesday 4th: SUPPER: Midweek Club Supper

Thursday 5th: BREAKFAST: Networking Nations
Speakers:TBC

Monday 9th: The Media Society: Katie Hopkins and Decca Aitkenhead
Controversial right-wing columnist Katie Hopkins will be interrogated by The Guardian's Decca Aitkenhead, one of the best interviewers in British journalist.

Wednesday 11th: BREAKFAST: Early Risers
Speakers:TBC

Thursday 12th: Networking Nations: Amsterdam

Monday 16th: Special at the Ivy Club on Women and the Workplace.

NOVEMBER

Wednesday 8th: SUPPER: Midweek Club Supper

Tuesday 21st: BREAKFAST: The Comment Awards. Priority for annual eiClub members

Look out for 2018 dates....