eiClub from Editorial Intelligence is to networks and networking what a personal trainer and great gym membership is to health and fitness. Our network gives you what founder, Julia Hobsbawm OBE calls 'Social Health' – a mix of face-to-face gatherings offline, combined with useful online intelligence.

'The eiClub combines original perspectives, people and ideas; the perfect antidote to "networking drinks".'
Simon Matthews, Partner, Cohere Partners; eiClub member since 2015

CORE MEMBER BENEFITS OF JOINING eiCLUB

- * THOUGHT FOR THE DAY BREAKFASTS: Our 'TFD' breakfasts take place informally every 6 weeks over breakfast in our partner venues where there is a mix of our network guests and interesting people from our wider network. Listen to some new perspectives and get involved as the conversation opens up to the room.
- * PARTNER 'THINKER' EVENTS: Through our affiliate partners which include The Ivy Club and The Media Society, we offer exclusive gratis places on a first-come-first-serve basis to our members every month. There are over 25 such events a year.
- * CONTENT CURATION: Free books or magazine from our publishing partners are available to pick up at our events.
- * eiKNOWLEDGE DASHBOARD: Our customised member newsletter detailing the best of what to read, see, who is in town and what to have on your radar. Only for Club members in 2019.
- * BRING A FRIEND & TOP-UP SALON SUPPERS: We appreciate that many of our members like to share event experiences with friends, family, clients and colleagues so we'll make our best effort to accommodate your guest at any of our Thought for the Day breakfasts (first-come-first-serve). You can also pay to attend small suppers hosted by a Member Ambassador.
- * SUMMER DRINKS: Always a fun-filled occasion with guests from across our entire network.

If you are either a 'Solopreneur' wishing to combine social and professional development, or a corporate executive wishing to maximise the benefit of any time out of the office, eiClub is for you.

Snapshot of the ei Community, 2018

We have built the eiNetwork community up over more than a decade. We have run over a thousand suppers, salons and symposiums and the following individuals are a snapshot of both the corporate and ‘solopreneur’ community who join eiClub but also the academics, writers, thinkers, mover and shakers who have attended our events.

We hope you too will join this mix of what founder Julia Hobsbawm calls simply ‘The Interesting and the Interested’.
